The Analyzes of Approaches and Challenges of Agricultural Bank Periods of Activity Agricultural Section Needs 1800,000 Billion Rials

Agricultural Bank founded at 1934 as the Bank of Farming and Industry. It was a kind of deposit and credit distributor since then. But after the Islamic Revolution it participated in three parts:

In the first period or pass from traditional to modern approach, it aimed to development its branches in rural and urban areas, promoted the bank services and the quality of them, customer satisfaction. In the second period, development of competition, completion of branches, having a powerful presence in trade regions, the diversity of services, exploiting modern technologies (Mehr System) and regulating mission statement and first and second strategic plan were the very achievements of this bank.

At the third period (2005) which was named to farmers, an extensive change in management highlighted the motto "Agricultural Bank: Bank of Farmers" and the Bank's activities allocated to agricultural section. During this period the bank didn't just rely on governmental resources, instead attempted to equip the deposits. Agricultural today need id about 120- 180 thousand Billion Rials but it only has about 70,000 billion Rials. This privation is the main challenge and concern of the bank in providing the cheap sources for agricultural section.
